

Jangos Set An Annual Scholarship

When Jango members and friends gather for the regular monthly Senior Luncheon on Tuesday, they will be talking about the establishment of a $500 scholarship to be awarded annually to a Junior Jango, or to the daughter of a commissioned officer in the United States Armed Forces.

The luncheon is to be at the Officer's Club, Fort Lesley J. McNair, with Mrs. Alfred C. Richmond, wife of the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard, as honor guest. Miss Angela Williams, member of the National League of American Penwomen will do a "Profile" of Joyce Cary and his fiction.

Mrs. C. H. DuVal will present a program of violin music accompanied by Mrs. A. L. McKusick, wife of Col. McKusick, at the piano. This will be by way of a farewell party for Mrs. DuVal, as she and Col. DuVal leave shortly for the West Coast.

Members of the scholarship committee are Mrs. Charles Finucane, chairman; Mrs. Francis M. McAlister, Mrs. Frederick S. Withington, Mrs. J. Lawton Collins, and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell.

The award is to be based on merit and need. The choice of the college is to be elective.

With Mrs. Kester L. Hastings in Europe representing the American Red Cross in England at the Civil Defense Conference, Mrs. James Murray, acting president, will preside at the luncheon.
